SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

Regan Turner

Regan Turner grew up in the small town of Floresville, Texas. He attended Texas A&M University and graduated magna cum laude with a degree in mechanical engineering while serving as Deputy Corps Commander in the Corps of Cadets. Regan then pursued a commission into the U.S. Marine Corps where, as a Marine infantry officer, he commanded a rifle platoon in Afghanistan and a mobile assault platoon in Iraq before being selected to serve as an instructor. He was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal for exceptional service to The Basic School and the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Award with valor distinction and Combat Action Ribbon. After seven years of active duty service, Regan knows the emotional pain and profound grief experienced by colleagues, friends and family after the death of a loved one.
